

It's OK to be Smart!

Cost: $65.00/week

Core Classes taught at
5421 Germantown Ave.
(215) 438-4400

These classes are offered to students needing a short review and preparation for the next level of academic development.

Core Class: Math Review – Geometry Made Easy

Description: This course will provide students with an overview of Geometry concepts that will be covered in the 10th grade curriculum. The material presented will be based upon Pennsylvania State Standards.
Date: August 16 – 20, 2010

Instructor: Julie Woodlin
Time: 9:00 – 11:00 pm

Core Class: Algebra I Review

Description: This course will provide students with an overview of Algebra I concepts that will be covered in the 9th grade curriculum. The material presented will be based upon Pennsylvania State Standards.
Date: July 26 – 30, 2010

Instructor: Vernell Fields
Time: 11:00 – 1:00 pm

Core Class: Algebra II Review

Description: This course will provide students with an overview of Algebra II concepts that will be covered in the 11th grade curriculum. The material presented will be based upon Pennsylvania State Standards.
Date: August 2 – 6, 2010

Instructor: Baochan Tran
Time: 9:00 – 11:00 am

Core Class: Math Boot Camp for 7th and 8th graders

Description: This course will provide students with an overview of Middle School Pre-Algebra concepts that will be covered in the 7th and 8th grade curriculum. The material presented will be based upon Pennsylvania State Standards.
Date: August 9 – 13, 2010

Instructor: Dana Henry
Time: 9:00 – 11:00 am

Core Class: Written Composition – College Bound Students

Description: This class breaks the writing process into manageable steps. With in-class discussion and a variety of engaging exercises, students will discover the foundations of good writing and learn how to express their thoughts in essay form. The class emphasis on strong writing skills can help students improve overall academic performance, reduce anxiety and prepare for college.
Date: August 9 – 13, 2010

Instructor: Dana Henry
Time: 12:00 – 2:00 pm

INTELLECTUAL PURSUIT INC.

2010 SUMMER CLASS SCHEDULE

Cost: $125.00/week

Technology intense classes taught at
7900 Germantown Ave.
(215) 247-1444

These courses are highly interactive using an interactive whiteboard for maximum visual and interactive learning modalities to achieve the greatest learning advantage for each participant. Limited enrollment

Summer Course Schedule for Advanced Learners w/SMART Board Interactive Whiteboard Technologies

Math Boot Camp for rising 9th graders

Description: This class is offered to 8th graders to prepare for the 9th grade Algebra I coursework. The course will introduce participants to the quick and easy techniques that will build confidence in math and erase the anxiety associated with becoming a freshman in high school. Application of Algebra to real world situations that will be beneficial in the future and unfortunately are not taught in depth in the school system
Date: June 28 – July 9, 2010

Instructor: Kellie Brown
Time: 9:00 am – 12:00 pm

Doing More in Less Time –
Study Skills Strategies for High School Students

Description: This course will teach students the importance of effective study skills and habits. Students will learn how to develop excellent study habits, how to study for each subject, and how to prepare for tests. Study Skills topics include time management, note taking strategies, effective study tools, reading textbooks, forming study groups, and studying for exams.
Date: August 30 – September 3, 2010

Instructor: Nneka Kirkland
Time: 10:00 am - 12:00 pm

So you want to go to college – Let's get started

Description: This 6 series course provides group discussion, online college management resources and a personal strengths assessment to pinpoint the most likely career choices aligned with personality preferences. The course provides an interactive venue for selecting college choices, preparing the first draft of the essays and building an impressive student profile that will give you a competitive advantage. Contact the office for cost information.
Date: 1st Saturday of the month from September – February

Instructor: Bernadine Abad
Time: 12:00 – 2:00 pm